SCREENING OVER THE CITY OF FILM LAUNCH WEEKEND IN CENTENARY SQUARE

Open 11am to 6pm Friday 19th March / Saturday 20th March

11am - FairyTale: A True Story (1997) (99 mins) PG

Based on factual accounts, this is the story of two young girls that, somehow, have the ability to take pictures of winged beings... which certainly causes quite a stir throughout England during the time of the first World War. Everyone, except the girls who think it's quite normal, are excited about this "photographic proof" that fairies exist... even the great Sir Arthur Conan Doyle and Harry Houdini pay the girls a visit.

1pm - Om Shanti Om (2007) (196 mins) 12A

A 2007 Bollywood musical film directed and choreographed by Farah Khan. It stars Shahrukh Khan and Deepak Padukone in the lead roles as the protagonists while Shreyas Talpade, Arjun Rampal, and Kirron Kher feature in supporting roles. Arjun Rampal is the antagonist in the movie. More than forty two well-known Bollywood stars appear in the course of the film, including thirty of them (not including the stars of the film) in one song alone.

4.20pm - Billy Liar (1962) (98 mins) PG .

Without doubt the leader of the pack when it comes to the 'kitchen sink' films of the late 1950s and early 1960s, Billy Liar is a Bradford film through and through. In a North Country industrial town, a provincial undertaker's clerk Billy Fisher (Tom Courtenay) exists in a drab monotony but escapes, Walter Mitty like, into a world of fantasy and invention. The district became the backdrop for the film: the Victoria Hotel, War Memorial, Victoria Square, and of course Southgate, location for the fictional firm of undertakers 'Shadrack & Duxbury' where in 1997 a plaque was unveiled by Director John Schlesinger as part of the Cinema 100 celebrations.
