

Bradford International Film Summit presents

FREE EVENT

THE POWER OF FILM IN EDUCATION

Friday 6 March 2015 ■ 9am–1pm ■ Seminar and discussion

Bradford UNESCO City of Film is leading the way in harnessing the power of film to educate and inspire young people and improve literacy.

Head of Education at the British Film Institute (BFI), Mark Reid, will speak about film literacy and how Bradford's innovative Film Literacy Programme is showing some amazing results in primary schools, hearing first-hand from teachers and consultants who deliver the programme in Bradford schools.

The session will also look at how the same approach can be taken in secondary education.

The Power of Film in Education is hosted by sponsors Bradford College. Delegates will also have the opportunity to look around the outstanding facilities on offer in further and higher education at Bradford College including Whistling Woods International Film School.

To register for your FREE place at The Power of Film in Education, please click here.

In partnership with

Venue

Michelle Sutton Lecture Theatre,
Hockney Building, Bradford College
BD7 1AY

Agenda

9am Registration

9.30–10am

Mark Reid, Head of Education, BFI

10.15–10.30am Refreshments

10.30–12 noon

The Power of Film in Education

Speakers include: Tim Bleazard, Education Consultant on the Bradford Film Literacy Programme & teacher, Lynn Fox from Oxenhope Primary, Franzi Florack, Bradford PhD candidate speaking about her PhD research on the Bradford Film Literacy Programme, Plenary Session.

12 noon–1pm Lunch

1–2pm Optional tour including:
Whistling Woods International Film School

The Power of Film in Education is part of the three-day Bradford International Film Summit being held from 4–6 March 2015.

@bfdcityoffilm

/bradfordcityoffilm

www.bradfordcityoffilm.com/summit

BRADFORD
CITY OF FILM

a UNESCO creative city